October 24, 2021

Twenty-Second Sunday after Pentecost

WELCOME to all visitors and guests this morning. We are happy you are here to worship with us. If you want to know more about the Church of Reconciliation, you may email the church office at info@cor-satx.org to receive our weekly e-mail.

All are welcome at the table of the Lord for Holy Communion. If you would prefer to receive Communion at your seat instead of at the rail, please let an usher know. Gluten-free wafers are available upon request. Large-print bulletins are available at the church entrances.

Trunk, Dunk, or Treat!

When: Sunday, October 31 Time: 12:00-2:00 p.m.

Where: Reconciliation (back parking lot by the Barracks) Ages: All

Cost: Free (unless you want to DUNK Rev. Josh!!)

Hosted by: Rec's Children, Youth & Families Ministry
We hope you will join us after church for yummy food, costumes, trunk or treating, games, and the opportunity to DUNK Rev. Josh!! Tickets will be sold to anyone who would like to try their hand at dunking our priest. All the proceeds will go towards buying winter coats to be donated to Casa Marianella in Austin!

We need YOU!!

In order to make our Trunk or Treat event the coolest thing since pumpkin spice, we need YOU!! We are looking for LOTS AND LOTS of trunks to be decorated!! This can be as simple as you want it to be (throw a pumpkin in your trunk and call it done) OR as detailed as you want it to be. All you need is your decorated vehicle parked in the back parking lot by 11:00 a.m. (along with candy to pass out to the kiddos). This year's "Best Decorated Trunk" will be awarded a $25 gift card to a location of the winner's choosing!! (Remember: nothing too scary...there will be lots of littles at this event!)

Baptisms at 10:30am service on All Saints Sunday

Holy Baptism is the doorway to Holy Communion. Jesus was baptized in the Jordan River by John the Baptist before beginning his earthly ministry and Christians all over the world and throughout history have continued in this sacramental practice ever since. On November 7th, we will observe the Feast of All Saints. On this day, baptisms are especially appropriate in the life of the Church.

If you are discerning whether you would like to join the Episcopal Church and/or would like to become confirmed during the Bishop's visit on November 21, baptism is the first step.

Those interested in being baptized will need to meet with Josh and/or Judy first. Please email revjoshwoods@gmail.com or call the office for more information or to sign up.

Today's altar flowers are given in thanksgiving for all Reconcilers: past, present, and future.

Faith to Table

We will resume our monthly brown bag gathering on Wed., Oct. 27 in the Library, 11:30am-1:00pm. Once a month we'll be gathering for a community brown bag lunch where we can come together as fellow Reconcilers for some much-needed community time. So pack your lunch and join our clergy for a time of food, fellowship, and fun around the table! All ages are welcome! We look forward to seeing you around the table! Josh+ and Judy+

Generosity Campaign

November is the month of our Generosity Campaign. This year's theme is "Going Further Together". We welcome and invite you to join us on this journey. Generosity is a fruit of the Spirit and a sign of our spiritual growth. As you pray and discern for yourself where God would want you to be in your giving, each week during November you will receive several offerings from your church family:

- Fireside Chat with Rev. Josh: Josh will interview a Reconciler about how they have experienced generosity in their lives and at Reconciliation.
- Devotionals: Several Reconcilers will offer written reflections.
- Special Speakers: During our Sunday services, several Reconcilers will speak on the theme of generosity.

Each offering will be an expression of a different thought spoken from the hearts of your church family. Our prayer is you will find faith, hope and love in each writing or video during the season of Generosity. May you feel the arms of Christ embracing you as you continue your own journey.

Campus Care Day

Saturday, November 6, 9:00am-12:00pm

Please come and enjoy the fellowship while helping to spruce up our campus, courtyard, and grounds. Bring your yard and garden equipment. We need lots of volunteers! We also need "food" providers (sandwiches, chips, veggies, cookies, drinks, etc.) to "feed the troops." If you have any questions, call Bill Swann at the office: (210) 655-2731.

Winter Coat Drive for Casa Marianella

The Middle School and High School Youth will be hosting a "Winter Coat Drive" to benefit the men and women of Casa Marianella in Austin, Texas! Casa Marianella welcomes displaced immigrants and promotes self-sufficiency by providing shelter and support services. The Middle School and High School Youth served at Casa Marianella this summer, and when we asked how else we might help, they mentioned their need for winter coats!! So, we are looking for donations of brand new or gently used winter coats (clean and nothing in need of repair). All donations can be brought to the front office or the Youth Building. Thank you in advance for your extremely generous donations!! More information about Casa Marianella can be found on their website at <https://www.casamarianella.org/about-us/> If you have any questions, comments or concerns, please feel free to chat with Jennifer Murphy.

LGBTQ+ Family Camp - November 19-21

Hosted by a cohort of Episcopal Diocese of West Texas Churches for LGBTQ folks at Camp Capers. This program will feel like Family Camp coupled with a mini-conference. We are bringing educators from Lifelong Learning who will help facilitate conversations and worship that will support individuals and families as they wrestle with their queer identity and faith. We hope this weekend is a time to celebrate and create space to learn, process, and be in fellowship with individuals, couples, and families who call or are longing to call the Episcopal Church home. Additionally, we will be bringing mental health professionals to lead breakout sessions or meet with attendees to aid in finding resources in their local areas. (Scholarship money is available...please chat with Jennifer Murphy if interested!)

Adult Formation: Foundations Course, Sundays at 9am in the Library, October 10 – November 14

We invite all Reconcilers, especially those who are new to Reconciliation, to reflect upon the question: "Why is the Episcopal Church my spiritual home?" This Adult Formation series will be a course for those who are contemplating Reception, Re-Affirmation, or Confirmation; for those who simply want to learn more about the Episcopal Church; and for those who want a refresher. You are not required to be confirmed, received, or re-affirmed at the end of the course. Those who choose to do so will have the opportunity on November 21, 2021, by Assisting Bishop Rayford High at the annual Episcopal visitation.

If you have any questions, please contact Rev. Josh or Rev. Judy directly. This series is always a joyful and Spirit-filled experience!

Midweek Eucharist on Wednesdays

Our Midweek Eucharist service will resume on Wednesday, November 3rd, at 12:30pm, and will be held weekly. All are welcome!

THE HEBREW SCRIPTURE

Lector: A Reading from Job.

Job 42:1-6, 10-27
Read by Christine Hausser at 8:00;
Read by Brad Coffey at 10:30

Job answered the LORD:

“I know that you can do all things,
and that no purpose of yours can be thwarted.
‘Who is this that hides counsel without knowledge?’
Therefore I have uttered what I did not understand, things too wonderful for me, which I did not know.
‘Hear, and I will speak;
I will question you, and you declare to me.’
I had heard of you by the hearing of the ear,
but now my eye sees you;
therefore I despise myself,
and repent in dust and ashes.”

And the LORD restored the fortunes of Job when he had prayed for his friends; and the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before. Then there came to him all his brothers and sisters and all who had known him before, and they ate bread with him in his house; they showed him sympathy and comforted him for all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him; and each of them gave him a piece of money and a gold ring. The LORD blessed the latter days of Job more than his beginning; and he had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand donkeys. He also had seven sons and three daughters. He named the first Jemimah, the second Keziah, and the third Kerenhappuch. In all the land there were no women so beautiful as Job's daughters; and their father gave them an inheritance along with their brothers. After this Job lived for one hundred and forty years, and saw his children, and his children's children, four generations. And Job died, old and full of days.

Lector: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

All: Thanks be to God.

PSALM 34 (spoken in unison at 8:00)

Led at 8:00 by Christine Hausser

Lector: Please join me in the recitation of the psalm.

I will bless the LORD at all times; *
his praise shall ever be in my mouth.

I will glory in the LORD; *
let the humble hear and rejoice.

Proclaim with me the greatness of the LORD; *
let us exalt his Name together.

I sought the LORD, and he answered me *
and delivered me out of all my terror.

Look upon him and be radiant, *
and let not your faces be ashamed.

I called in my affliction and the LORD heard me *
and saved me from all my troubles.

The angel of the LORD encompasses those who fear him, *
and he will deliver them.

Taste and see that the LORD is good; *
happy are they who trust in him!

Many are the troubles of the righteous, *
but the LORD will deliver him out of them all.

He will keep safe all his bones; *
not one of them shall be broken.

Evil shall slay the wicked, *
and those who hate the righteous will be punished.

The LORD ransoms the life of his servants, *
and none will be punished who trust in him.

PSALM 34 (sung at 10:30 only)

Refrain: Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

I will bless the Lord at all times, God's praise ever in my mouth.
Glory in the Lord forever, and the lowly will hear and be glad. Refrain

Glory in the Lord with me, let us together extol God's name.
I sought the Lord, who answered me and delivered me from all my fears. Refrain

Look to God that you might be radiant with joy and your faces free from all shame.
The Lord hears the suffering souls, and saves them from all distress. Refrain

THE EPISTLE

Hebrews 7:23-28

Read by Christine Hausser at 8:00;

Read by Julia Coffey at 10:30

Lector: A reading from Hebrews.

The former priests were many in number, because they were prevented by death from continuing in office; but Jesus holds his priesthood permanently, because he continues forever. Consequently he is able for all time to save those who approach God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them.

For it was fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, blameless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens. Unlike the other high priests, he has no need to offer sacrifices day after day, first for his own sins, and then for those of the people; this he did once for all when he offered himself. For the law appoints as high priests those who are subject to weakness, but the word of the oath, which came later than the law, appoints a Son who has been made perfect forever.

Lector: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

All: Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL ACCLAMATION (10:30 only)

THE GOSPEL

Mark 10:46-52

Celebrant: The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People: Glory to you, O Christ.

Jesus and his disciples came to Jericho. As he and his disciples and a large crowd were leaving Jericho, Bartimaeus son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside. When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout out and say, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!"

Many sternly ordered him to be quiet, but he cried out even more loudly, "Son of David, have mercy on me!" Jesus stood still and said, "Call him here." And they called the blind man, saying to him, "Take heart; get up, he is calling you." So throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus. Then Jesus said to him, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man said to him, "My teacher, let me see again." Jesus said to him, "Go; your faith has made you well." Immediately he regained his sight and followed him on the way.

Celebrant: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, O Christ.

GENEROSITY SPEAKER

Bryna Nation

SERMON

The Rev. Josh Woods

THE NICENE CREED

Celebrant: Let us affirm our faith together.

All: We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father,
who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Read by Christine Hausser at 8:00;
Read by Timothy Webber at 10:30

Intercessor: In peace and in faith, let us offer our prayers, saying, "Christ, have mercy." For peace and tranquility in the world, and for the salvation of all, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

For Michael, our Presiding Bishop, for David and Rayford, our own Bishops, and for all the People of God, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

For the Church of God in every place, that it may persevere in faith and hope, we pray to you.

Christ, have mercy.

For all who minister in your Church, especially Josh and Judith, our priests, that they may have grace to build up your people in love, we pray to you.

Christ, have mercy.

Guide the people of this land, and of all the nations, in the ways of justice and peace; today, most especially we pray for the missionaries who have been kidnapped in Haiti; may we and all the peoples of the world honor one another and serve the common good.

Christ, have mercy.

Give wisdom to all those who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world, especially Joe, our president, Greg, our governor, and Ron, our mayor.

Christ, have mercy.

Give us all a reverence for the earth as your own creation, that we may use its resources rightly in the service of others and to your honor and glory. Today, we acknowledge the extinction of the Bachman's warbler.

Christ, have mercy.

Bless all whose lives are closely linked with ours, and grant that we may serve Christ in them, and love one another as he loves us. Today, we especially remember military members, medical workers, and first responders.

Christ, have mercy.

Comfort and heal all those who suffer in body, mind, or spirit, especially those we name either silently or aloud___; and for Jan, Kimberly, Nora, Garnet, Susan, Stella, Robert, Randy, Shanna, Tiffany, Alfred, and Edith; give them courage and hope in their troubles, and bring them the joy of your salvation.

Christ, have mercy.

We commend to your mercy all who have died, especially Colin Powell, that your will for them may be fulfilled; and we pray that we may share with all your saints in your eternal kingdom.

Christ, have mercy.

The priest reads the Concluding Collect.

O Lord our God, accept the fervent prayers of your people; in the multitude of your mercies, look with compassion upon us and all who turn to you for help; for you are gracious, O lover of souls, and to you we give glory, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

THE CONFESSION OF SIN

Enriching Our Worship

Minister Let us confess our sins to God.

Minister and People

God of all mercy,

we confess that we have sinned against you,
opposing your will in our lives.

We have denied your goodness in each other,
in ourselves, and in the world you have created.

We repent of the evil that enslaves us,
the evil we have done,
and the evil done on our behalf.

Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love
and serve only your will. Amen.

THE ABSOLUTION

Minister

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

THE OFFERTORY SENTENCE

Celebrant: Walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself for us, an offering and sacrifice to God.

THE OFFERTORY ANTHEM (10:30 only)

God Thou Art Love

If I forget, yet God remembers. If these hands of mine cease from their clinging,
Yet the hands divine hold me so firmly I cannot fall.
And if sometimes I am too tired to call for Him to help me,
Then he reads the prayer unspoken in my heart and lifts my care.

I dare not fear since certainly I know that I am in God's keeping.
Shielded so, from all that else would harm,
And in the hour of stern temptation, strengthened by His power.

I tread no path in life to Him unknown;
I lift no burden, bear no pain, alone;
My soul a calm, sure hiding place has found.
The everlasting Arms my life surround.

God, thou art Love! I build my faith on that.
I know Thee who has kept my path. And made light for me in the darkness, Tempering sorrow so that it reached me like a solemn joy.

It were too strange that I should doubt Thy love.

DOXOLOGY (10:30 only)

Old 100th

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host:
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

RECEIVING THE OFFERTORY (8:00 only)

Celebrant: All things come of thee, O Lord.

All: And of thine own have we given thee.

THE LITURGY OF THE TABLE

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Enriching Our Worship, Prayer 3

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

All thanks and praise are yours at all times and in all places, our true and loving God; through Jesus Christ, your eternal Word, the Wisdom from on high by whom you created all things. You laid the foundations of the world and enclosed the sea when it burst out from the womb; You brought forth all creatures of the earth and gave breath to humankind. Wondrous are you, Holy One of Blessing, all you create is a sign of hope for our journey;

And so as the morning stars sing your praises we join the heavenly beings and all creation as we shout with joy:

Celebrant and People (sung at 10:30)

S130

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

The Celebrant continues

Glory and honor are yours, Creator of all, your Word has never been silent; you called a people to yourself, as a light to the nations, you delivered them from bondage and led them to a land of promise. Of your grace, you gave Jesus to be human, to share our life, to proclaim the coming of your holy reign and give himself for us, a fragrant offering. Through Jesus Christ our Redeemer, you have freed us from sin, brought us into your life, reconciled us to you, and restored us to the glory you intend for us.

We thank you that on the night before he died for us Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, gave it to his friends and said: "Take, eat, this is my Body, broken for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine, said the blessing, gave it to his friends and said: "Drink this, all of you: this cup is the new Covenant in my Blood, poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me."

And so, remembering all that was done for us: the cross, the tomb, the resurrection and ascension, longing for Christ's coming in glory, and presenting to you these gifts your earth has formed and human hands have made, we acclaim you, O Christ:

Celebrant and People

Dying, you destroyed our death. Rising, you restored our life. Christ Jesus, come in glory!

Send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts of bread and wine that they may be to us the Body and Blood of your Christ. Grant that we, burning with your Spirit's power, may be a people of hope, justice and love.

Giver of Life, draw us together in the Body of Christ, and in the fullness of time gather us with all your people into the joy of our true eternal home.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, we worship you our God and Creator in voices of unending praise.

Celebrant and People

Blessed are you now and for ever. AMEN.

Celebrant: As our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

The LORD'S PRAYER

(SUNG at 10:30)

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come,
your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours
now and for ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Celebrant: Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

The people respond: Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
